

I tottally dissagree with this request. People should be able to keep their original cell phone number regardless of the service company.